Section 12. No approval of plans, location or specifications, shall ever be construed as representing or implying that such plans, specifications or standards will, if followed, result in a properly designed residence. Such approvals and standards shall, in no event, be construed as representing or guaranteeing that any residence or improvement thereon will be built in a good workmanlike manner. The Architectural Committee shall not be responsible for or liable for any defects in any plans or specifications submitted, received, or approved under these covenants nor for any defects in construction pursuant to such plans and specifications. The Owner shall have sole responsibility for compliance with the restrictions and does hereby hold the Architectural Committee harmless for any failure thereof caused by the Owner's architect or builder.
